

GeoPost kicks off operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina and Bulgaria

Paris, 7 January 2005- Pursuing its expansion into the Balkans GeoPost has officially started up the DPD network in Bosnia-Herzegovina and Bulgaria.

Based in Sofia, GeoPost Bulgaria is a joint-venture between GeoPost Yurtiçi Kargo and City Express Ltd. In Bosnia-Herzegovina GeoPost has put together a joint-venture with Austrian company, Lagermax which has been enjoying close relations with the Balkan countries for a long time and has the advantage of owning a well-established infrastructure in south-eastern Europe.

"Our expansion in Europe is rapidly progressing. We are offering identical quality products and services in every country, both in Europe and beyond. Thanks to such partnerships, from now on GeoPost is in a position to help its international clients develop towards the Balkans", declared Claude Béglé, CEO of GeoPost International Management & Development Holding and CEO of DPD.

GeoPost press contact

Alexandre Bruggmann

Director of External Communication

+49 (0) 174 203 0154

E-mail: alexandre.bruggmann@laposte.net