

PRESS RELEASE – PRESS RELEASE

DPD network welcomes a new member

Paris, July 16, 2008 - Having received anti-trust approval, GeoPost Group confirms acquisition of the remaining shares in DPD Serbia from Lagermax.

GeoPost previously owned 30% of shares in DPD Serbia. The change of shareholding is effective immediately.

"With the acquisition of DPD Serbia, GeoPost has further strengthened its position and shown its commitment to the Adriatic region. The Adriatic region plays an important part in DPD's European network, with increasing goods flows both within the region and to neighboring markets. Businesses in Serbia are becoming increasingly demanding of their service providers; it is our mission to ensure we become the quality leader on the market as quickly as possible. GeoPost has ambitious growth plans for our Serbian business, and our local team will benefit from DPD's industry know-how and experience from neighbouring markets" says Adam Chazanow, CEO South Eastern Europe.

DPD Serbia already has a strong presence on the local market, with its Belgrade hub and depots in Nis, Cacak and Novi Sad. DPD's clients in Serbia are currently able to benefit from services including domestic parcel distribution, export and import parcel deliveries, Cash on Delivery services.
